Condolences to Kim & the Family, Jerry B. Shaw AKA "The BABY BOY" was a true servant that loved God and was a kind, caring, funny, witty person full of life and my good friend for over thirty years and I am going to truly miss our friendship. He loved his family and would do anything for them. He also loved to travel, attend jazz concerts and play golf. We had a small retiree group that travelled to museums, jazz concerts, NFL games and go to NY to sight see and attend plays. He had several funny sayings but my favorite was "He was Internationally known, Nationally Recognized and Locally Accepted". My prayer for my brother and good friend is that he heard the words "WELL DONE THY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT" and now REST IN PEACE. Your Good Friend and Coalition of Concerned Black Christian Brother Michael Crawford
