To The Cooper Family, our thoughts have been with you from the day we had been notified. Our prayers of comfort have been pouring out since that day. I will always remember staying at your home during my freshman year of college. It was all giggles and laughs. A memory I will always cherish the most. Cousin, I am confident that you are laughing with the angels and that you are reunited with family and friends who went up before you. Another Angel up there to always guide our paths. Thinking of you all with love, prayers and hugs. - The Harrison's
