Timothy Eli McCoy He was born on May 10, 1965, a day like no other. We all celebrated the birth of my little brother. Another boy came to the McCoy family that day. It was a wonderful birth in the great month of May. He was a welcomed addition to our family. He has helped to enrich the real McCoy's legacy. I have been so proud of him and the man he had become, Especially knowing where my little brother has come from. He had continued to give it his best and his all. Whether working, living, and as a youth playing basketball. He had more than succeeded and really earned my trust. He has worked in the school system, the prison, and drove a Gateway bus. He was never one to sit idly by, waiting on the milk and honey. My brother went out and really earned his money. He is a driving man; he can drive anything he sets his mind to. There isn't much my brother really couldn't do. He had many gifts, some seen and others unseen. In another life, he could have been an African king. He was well liked by many people who got to know him. He preferred to be called Timothy, but others call him Tim. No matter what they called him, he was my brother until the end. He was also, I must say, a very special friend. I will always love him, but then again, I did from the start. He will always have a special place in my heart. Time may pass with the setting of the sun. Always remember your work is never done. He was my brother, and no one will ever steal my joy. He was definitely my youngest brother, Timothy Eli McCoy. Still in disbelief! I know Tim thru being a passenger on Gateway & him a driver. Years back Tim and some of his Gateway Posse would come in Pizza Hut and I would serve them every time they came in. He loved to laugh and joke just like me. He will surely be missed by ALL ❤️. My heartfelt condolences to his family and all who hold him near & dear. May God continually bless & comfort u all during this most heartbreaking time 🙏.
