To the family of George (Maypop) Gills, we extend our sincere and deepest condolences to you all. Maypop as we called him has been a family friend ever since Creech Street. We lived next to one another and we were a very close knit community. He remained a close family friend throughout the years and we will truly miss him.

To the Gills family, I I am so sorry for your loss. He was such a kind, humble man. You was like older brother to me. I I haven't been knowing him for over 55 years ,as he and my brother were best friends. I will never forget those brown eyes and his contagious laugh. May God comfort you at this difficult time.
