Ms. Baker was a wonderful coworker. She was special to me because she was willing to help me decorate my classroom which she added her own specially designed art for my students to learn and enjoy through the school year.

Sheryl as I call her was a very wonderful friend and sister in Christ. I can't even say how badly I'll miss her in my life. I am grateful however for the time that we shared and the time God loaned her to all of us. My sincere condolences, thoughts and prayers will continue to be with her daughter, son and grandchildren. Also the host of all who loved her and will miss her greatly. Rest in peace. Until we meet in Glory! 🙏✝️❤️
