My wife Phyllis and myself just recently reconnected with Aunt Ella in the past three months because we weren't exactly sure of her location. We were so glad to be in her company once again that we asked for her permission to address her as Aunt Ella. She always has such a sweet caring spirit. Her presence here will be greatly missed. It's not within our power to bring her back, but we take comfort in the fact that if we live right, we can go where she!! We thank God for this a life well lived..

My sweet Ella, I loved you from the first day I met you. I spoiled u as much as possible with breakfast on Mondays and Fridays and sometimes a Wednesday. Nahunta Sausage was a favorite and On Wednesday you sometimes got two, one from me and one from your sweet niece Hilda. Your hugs were the best and your love is engraved in my heart forever. And I will always remember how dedicated Hilda and Janice were to you. Today I left Somerset with the bracelet I had given you, which means so much more now that you wore it for several months with pride. I love you and know you are at peace with the Lord. My forever friend unto we meet again.

Hilda Farmer posted:

Auntie, there are no words to express my sorrow. For the past two years as I visited you on Wednesday mornings with my "William" home cooked breakfast. (Bacon, sausage, grits, eggs, toast (I did not forget the jelly), or a molasses biscuit. We would sit and talk about whatever conversation that you felt like. You knew more of what was happening in Best Station than I did. I often wondered if there was a "Beston Times Newspaper" that I was unaware of. We talked, laughed and more meaningful than anything, we prayed and praised the Lord together....we often had church in the room along with the visiting Chaplain. On our last visit, you told me that you loved me, gave me a tight hug and thanked me for being good to you. I often told her that it was "Christ working in me" and if His spirit dwells in us, we will do on this earth what He came to do, and that was to SERVE. Auntie's visits allowed me to continue with God's will in my life. My tears continue to flow and I can hear you say, it will be alright for I am now at peace, resting in the arms of Jesus. I thank Him for "98" years of life on this earth....but nothing compares to that eternal life where I will worship Him forever and forever. With love, your Niece, Hilda Farmer
